

Proclamation

WHEREAS, our citizens consider military service to be the ultimate patriotic duty, whether said service be in an active duty or ready reserve capacity; and

WHEREAS, our community is indebted to these patriotic citizens who have protected the freedoms that define our nation; and

WHEREAS, our military veterans have demonstrated the courage to place themselves in harm's way for our freedoms and liberty; and

WHEREAS, we now pause and reflect on those past sacrifices of our veterans, as well as the continuing work of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the V.F.W. Auxiliary; and

WHEREAS, we are now in the midst of a time of grave concern as our country is involved in a different kind of war that may be fought both on foreign soil and our own.

NOW, THEREFORE, I do hereby urge all citizens to join me on this Veterans Day in honoring our veterans who have served with honor and courage in defense of the United States of America, we extend our public appreciation for their time in service in uniform, as well as peacetime services they have offered to our community and to the nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand and cause the corporate seal of the City of New Berlin to be fixed this 11th day of November, 2016.
